Jonathan Ogden's "An Evening Ringside"

Martins Valley Mansion | Cockeysville MD | November 3, 2016

BALTIMORE, MD -- Zarren Law Group, LLC sponsored Jonathan Ogden's (formerly with the Baltimore Ravens) 11th Annual "An Evening Ringside" event at Martins Valley Mansion in Cockeysville, MD.

"ZLG is proud, once again, to sponsor this fantastic event which raises proceeds for such a worthy cause. We applaud Jonathan for taking the time to give back so generously to the community. This is our fifth year being a part of such a great charitable event and to give back to our great community" said Adam Zarren, Managing Partner of Zarren Law Group, LLC.

Baltimore Ravens NFL Hall of Famer Jonathan Ogden personally funded all of the activities of the Foundation in its early years. In October 2006, the Foundation held its First Annual "An Evening Ringside" a charity boxing event in Baltimore, MD and in June 2008 held its First Annual Celebrity Golf Tournament in Baltimore, MD in conjunction with its Third Annual Boxing Event.

The Jonathan Ogden Foundation, Inc. was established in 1996 to assist young people in disadvantaged communities develop self-esteem through athletics and education. Since its inception, the positive impact has been remarkable with grades, SAT/ACT scores, graduation and college acceptance rates rising each year. They assist students with SAT/ACT test preparation, college selection and preparing and submitting college applications. Each spring, they rent buses and take students on college visits. For many of their students they pay the SAT/ACT testing fees and college application fees. The Foundation has summer programs for the students and require each to complete a spring "Ropes Course" program, just as many of their contemporaries in private schools do.
